

Promises

Sugababes

It's okay to go and make mistakes
It's okay to break your promises
You're moving on anyway I hate the way it makes me feel inside
You promised me, you'd be all that I need
I wonder why you lied Promises you made, coming back to haunt you
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye You gave me time to think about you and me
I hate the way you make me feel inside
I wonder why you lie Promises you made, coming back to haunt you
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye I was breathing 'coz that's that the gauze was indicating
While was blaming I was soon to be so implicated
Now, I'm through with all the lies and pictures are back-dated
Almost lost my friendly feet 'coz boy I'm operating Promises you made, coming back to haunt you
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye Promises you made, coming back to haunt you
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye Promises you made, coming back to haunt you
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
I was in the wrong, but it doesn't really matter
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
Don't whisper in my ear, you gotta learn to say goodbye
