Ocean Gypsy

Blackmore's Night

Tried to take it all away

Learn her freedom just inside a day

And find her soul

To find their fears allayedTried to make her love their own

They took her love they left her there

They gave her nothing back

That she would want to ownGold and silver rings and stones

Dances slowly of the moon

No one else can know

She stands aloneSleeping dreams will reach for her

She cannot say the words they need

She knows she's alone

And she is freeOcean gypsy of the moon

The sun has made a thousand nights

For you to hold

Ocean gypsy where are you?

The shadows followed by the stars

Have turned to gold, turned to goldThen she met a hollow soul

Filled him with her light

And was consoled she was the moon

And he, the sun was goldEyes were blinded with his light

The sun she gave

Reflected back the night

The moon was waning almost out of sightSoftly ocean gypsy calls

Silence holds the stars awhile

They smile sadly

For her where she fallsJust the time before the dawn

The sea is hushed

The ocean calls her

Day has taken her and now she's goneOcean gypsy of the moon

The sun has made a thousand nights

For you to hold

Ocean gypsy where are you?

The shadows followed by the stars

Have turned to gold, turned to goldNo one noticed when she died

Ocean gypsy shackled to the tide

The ebbing waves were turning

Spreading wideSomething gone within her eyes

Her fingers lifeless stroke the sand

Her battered soul was lost
She was abandonedSilken threads like wings still shine
Winds take pleasure still make patterns
In her lovely hair
So dark and fineStands on high beneath the seas
Cries no more

Her tears have dried

Oceans weep for her the ocean sighsOcean gypsy of the moon

The sun has made a thousand nights

For you to hold

Ocean gypsy where are you?

The shadows followed by the stars

Have turned to gold, turned to gold
