Light Sleeper

Ben Hans Trio

Sleep, sleep little darling
I swear I'm not trying to wear you out
I'm not trying to drag you downWhen you fall asleep tonight
They'll be waiting for you
When you try to close your eyes
They'll try not to hate youSleep, sleep the night away
Act like nothings wrong
You know we're going downYou are such a light sleeper
Count to ten and you're already out
We fall, we're in deeper
The night's gone as we open up our eyesLay down we'll never sleep again
We try we know we'll never win
At least we know we'll make it out alive
At least we know we'll make it out this timeYou are such a light sleeper
Count to ten and you're already out
We fall, we're in deeper
The night's gone as we open up our eyesWe fall
We know that we can make it now
We fall
We know that we can break this down
We can break this downWe hear what you're saying
Not enough so we keep playing
This game is what you make it
One chance so why not take it?You are such a light sleeper
Count to ten and you're already out
We fall, we're in deeper
The night's gone as we open up our eyesSuch a light sleeperSleep, sleep little darling
I swear I'm not trying to wear you out
I'm not trying to drag you down
