

Lazy Eye (Brian Lebarton Remix)

Silversun Pickups

I've been waiting i've been waiting for this moment all my life but it's not quite right in this 'real' it's impossible if possible at who's blind word so clear but so unheard i've been waiting i've been waiting for the silence all night long it's just a matter of time to appear sad with the same 'ol decent lazy eye fixed to rest on you so clear but so untrue everyone's so intimately rearranged everyone's so focused with such shine everyone's so intimately rearranged everyone's so focused with such shine locked and loaded still the same 'ol decent lazy eye straight through your gaze that's why i said I relate i said we relate it's so fun to relate it's the room the sun and the sky it's the room the sun and the sky i've been waiting i've been waiting for this moment...
