

How Will You Know?

Kim Burrell

Have you ever had questions
In the back of your mind
About the future, what it has in store for you.

Have you ever been afraid deep down inside
And you cry, cause you don't know what to do.

Sometimes you, wanna know the truth
But your so afraid the truth just might hurt you.
Aren't you tired of tossin and turnin, And loosing sleep at night.
You never know, things will just be alright.

If you never search, you wont find
If you never ask, you'll never receive.
It might not be as bad, as bad as it seems
How will you know... (2x's)

Maybe you should, but you wont,
You know you could, but you don't
And you smile to hide the fear you feel inside.

One day your up and then your down
No trace of joy can be found.
And you wonder will this feeling ever end.

(ooohhh) This feeling that you feel, just won't seem to go away (seem to go away)
And you wonder if you, can make it another day.
(Let me tell ya') Pull yourself together, and find the strength inside.
Just hold on tight, and look to the sky...

Cause if you never search, you wont find
If you never ask, you'll never receive.
It might not be as bad, as bad as it seems
How will you know... (2x's)

Do you ever wonder, how the flowers bloom
And the sun was made to shine upon your face (shine upon your face)Ooohhh, and the worst would be that the pain you feel would only last for just one night (would have to feel the pain, would only last just one night)
(Hold on tight) It'll be alright, I'll wipe the tears from your eyes.....
Heeyyyyyyy ooohhhh hhhhheeeeyyyyy aayyy

ooohhhhh heeeeyy hhhhheeeeyyyy oooooohhh heeeeyy

(Ever search, if you never search, you wont find) search, you wont find it

(If you never ask, you'll never receive)

(It might be as bad, as bad as it seems- tell me)

How will you know (2x's) (ohhhh, tell me ohh)
