

Hatred

Hypocrisy

You haven't thought since the day you arrived?
It's like a hemmoroid that fucks with my life
You look at me like you've never seen me before
Do you think I care? You're just another trickSnap out of it
Snap out of itWhat're you laughing at?
I don't want to hear you no more
I'll no longer talk to your ass
Decision comes on every whimIf they're screaming yeah, I won't hear it
I know your kind, snap out of it
Filled with anger, filled with hate
I know your kind, you're just a waste of timeYou try to twist it, I spit in your face
I don't see the reason to argue
Why do you compliment?
You're just wasting your breathUh, here we go
Snap out of it
Snap out of itWhat're you laughing at?
I don't want to hear you no more
I'll no longer talk to your ass
Decision comes on every whimIf they're screaming, I won't hear it
I know your kind, snap out of it
Filled with anger, filled with hate
I know your kind, you're just a waste of time
