

Last Daze

BCee

Somewhere in the darkest night
A stranger has lost the way
Cold wind and a distant light

Has carried his heart awaySome say he was one of us
A prodigal gone astray
But inside he's as cold as ice

To the truth that he won't obeyHe won't discern

The point of no returnIn the last daze, the final haze
There was strong delusion to believe a lie
In the last daze before the blaze
They couldn't see beyond their misty trance
To grab the truth and have a fighting chance

In the last dazeCold chills when the spirit speaks
That some shall depart from the faith
All ends in calamity
Just when they thought it was safe

They followed the lies the fables men devisedIn the last daze, the final haze
There was strong delusion to believe a lie
In the last daze before the blaze
They couldn't see beyond their misty trance
To grab the truth and have a fighting chance

In the last dazeSome say it's a certainty
A sign of the times I am told
But I weep for the souls of those
Who will never return to the fold

Never return to the foldIn the last daze, the final haze
There was strong delusion to believe a lie
In the last daze before the blaze
They couldn't see beyond their misty trance
To grab the truth and have a fighting chance

In the last daze, last dazeIt's the last daze, oh, oh, yeah
Na, na, na, na, na, yeah, last daze
Na, na, na, yeah, last daze
Last daze
