

Wasteland

Cindergarden

Nothing comes as close as you to the truth I'm searching for If I never find my way through the wasteland taste of sour dreams
 I guess I've been here before Hold me now give me a sign
 I will be blindly faithful
One more chance to find a relic of survival
 Through the mazes of the soul
 I have seen the moments pour Will you guide me to the truth through the wasteland I see in my dreams
 I have not been here before
