

After Tonight

Roy Orbison

It's our last dance and my last chance to be holding you tight for soon, you'll belong to someone else After Tonight Everyone says in a few days
everything will be alright
For you, it may be, but not for me
After Tonight All The moments that we are together why can't they last, forever and ever [x2] Oh, as I leave you, I'll won't see you For teardrops are dulling my side
And soon you will be a memory
After Tonight [x2]
