Everything At Once

Swans

I'll cut up my time into two separate pieces
In one place, I'm someone I don't know
In the second place, I don't remember my name
I'll maintain control, I'll imitate you perfectlyNow there's nothing [incomprehensible] you win
My flesh hangs loose on my bones
I'm old, I'm poisonedI feel everything at once
Watch me fall
I'll try to remember if I've ever been here before
I can't rememberI'll imitate everything around me perfectly
I feel everything at once
Time will always win
It's poisonI've never loved you
I was never here
I've never loved you
I was never here
I've never loved you
I was never hereI remember what it felt like
To take a deep breath
Then exhale, then forget
What I had just doneI was never here
I'll imitate everything around me
Perfectly
PerfectlyPerfectly
Perfectly
Perfectly
[Incomprehensible] perfectly
