

Perfect

Marianas Trench

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Please sing to me, I can see you open up to breathe
Because fast words make it easier on me
If the point's to never disappoint you,
Somebody's got to tell me what to do I just wish you would've seen me
When it used to come so easy
I'd like to say that it's easy to stay, but it's not for me
Because I'm barely here at all Slow down now, the secret's out
And I swear now, everything is perfect What you want, what you need has been killing me
Trying to be everything that you want me to be
I'll say yes I'll undress, I've done more for less
And I will change everything until it's perfect again Coming down, coming around
Giving a frown to the sound when I hit ground
I hate the way that I say I should stay
When I know that I don't give a fuck about it anyway I shake hands and shoot smiles all around
As I sell my body by the pound
Sign my name on a dotted line for what would be fate, do not resuscitate Just slow down now, the secret's out
And I swear now I'll still make this perfect What you want, what you need has been killing me
Trying to be everything that you want me to be
I'll say yes I'll undress, I've done more for less
And I will change everything until it's perfect again I think it's better this way
This is good in a bad way
It's better this way I'll make this perfect again
I'll make this perfect again What you want, what you need has been killing me
And I will change everything you want me to be
I say yes I'll undress, I've done more for less
And I will change everything What you want, what you need has been killing me
Trying to be everything that you want me to be
(I'll make this perfect again)
I'll say yes I'll undress, I've done more for less
And I will change everything
I'll make this perfect again
