

Once

Slow Magic & Beat Culture

Once embraced, can't ever be let go
Once revealed, can't ever be not shown
Once believed, can't ever lose faith
Once shared, can't ever be separate
Once sown, once can't ever be not reaped
Like the dawn of a brand new day
With the power of deity
Well, I can feel it inside of me
Feel it, well, can you feel it?
Once born, can't ever be not conceived
Once present, can't ever be past
Once first, once can't ever be not ever last
Returning home of the Prodigal
Holding the intangible
To believe in a miracle
Believe it, can you believe it?
Have you ever been touched?
Once whoa, really touched?
Could it ever be too much?
Whoa oh oh, can you tell me?
Once seen, can't ever lose sight
Once dawn, can't ever be not light
Once, once felt, once felt
Can't ever be untouched
The assurance only hope can bring
With the conviction of the unseen
See it's greater than everything
See it, oh, can you see it?
Have you ever been touched?
Once whoa oh, really, really touched?
Could it ever be too much?
Whoa oh oh, can you tell me?
Have you ever really touched love once?
Oh, have you ever been touched?
Once whoa oh oh, really touched?
Could it ever be too much?
I don't know, did you tell me?
Have you ever really touched
Once, whoa oh really, really touched?

Could it ever be too much?
Oh, somebody tell me
Have you ever really touched
Love once?
Ah, have you ever really touched
Love once?
Have you ever really touched love
Touched love?
Oh, love once
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
