

Gone As a Girl Can Get

George Strait

Well I haven't seen her lately and she never calls
She don't ask my friends about me gives no clues at all
That a fire might still be burning, yeah
And I'd say, "She's about as gone as a girl can get" She don't even show up in my dreams at night
But my stubborn old memory keeps holding on tight
Sure makes it hard to forget
She's about as gone as a girl can get She's out of here she disappeared without a trace
More or less unimpressed by the tears on my face
Destination unknown she just dropped out of sight
Last seen heading right on out of my life
Like a stranger I ain't never met
She's about as gone as a girl can get She's out of here she disappeared without a trace
More or less unimpressed by the tears on my face
Destination unknown she just dropped out of sight
Last seen heading right on out of my life
Like a stranger I ain't never met
She's about as gone as a girl can get
Like a stranger I ain't never met
Well I'd say, "She's about as gone as a girl can get"
