Just a Zombie

Venetian Princess

Looking out the window as it rains
My stomach rumbles, I'm hungry for some brains
Nobody understands my painEveryday at school I walk down the halls
I flash a smile and wink at my crush Paul
But he runs to the boys room to hide in a stallHes the school editor
I'm a predator
He eats cheese
And I eat arteries
I'm dreaming 'bout the day when he'll stop running away
And he'll see whats underneath
Lookin' past my razor teethIf he could be with me and feel the way that I feel
I promise he will not be my next meal
There's more to me
But to him I'm just a zombieBe with me and feel the way that I feel
I promise he will not be my next meal
There's more to me
