

Difficult For Weirdos

Robbie Williams

We're the futurists in the bistro
Where the music is for weirdos
We like it different, we like it strange
In our own way we haven't changed
I got my eyes made-up at the bus stop
By my girlfriend, and you know what?
She likes me different, she likes me strange
In her own way she's just the same
Psycho evolution, your pollution
Makes it difficult for weirdos
Just another humanoid reaction
To the voices in this town
Every Saturday at the plaza
Guess the gender unless you'd rather
He is a lesbian but that's okay
She is the center of attention for another day
In the universe we are magenta
You can join us if you enter
Because you're different and you are strange
In your own way you're just the same
Psycho evolution, your pollution
Makes it difficult for weirdos
Just another humanoid reaction
To the voices in this town

Weirdo, weirdo
Time isn't lost where devotion is
I never wasted a life
Space is the place where the social is Far from the safe and the norm
In the off stream, they call it cabaret
But they'll say that, won't they?
I want it different, I like it strange
In my own way I haven't changed
It's insulting to be mislead
By the hairdo of the godhead
They show irreverence but that's okay
We are the center of the universe anyway
Psycho evolution, your pollution

Makes it difficult for weirdos
Just another humanoid reaction
To the voices in this town
Psycho evolution, your pollution
Makes it difficult for weirdos
Just another humanoid reaction
To the voices in this town
