Accidents and Compliments

Soulwax

You need truth and Aspirin
I need violence
No one, no one has good taste
It's all just coincidence'Cause you don't seem to bother
You don't seem to understand
Accidents and compliments
'Cause you don't seem to understand
This is all you wanted
You don't seem to comprehendI need pills and memories
You need an audience
No one, no one gets nothing
I call you what in the end'Cause you don't seem to bother
You don't seem to understand
Accidents and compliments
'Cause you don't seem to comprehend
We do not accept this
You don't seem to understand'Cause you don't seem to understand
Accidents and compliments
You don't seem to comprehend
We do not accept thisYou don't seem so innocent
This is all you wanted
You don't seem to understand
'Cause every time we try to end
