True Love Can Be Beautiful

Jackson 5

Searching, been looking everywhere
Soon I'll find you, girl
I know I'm getting closer now
Can't wait to hold you, girl
The day I find you, girl, you'll love me
Hey, girl
When you're in my arms, you want to keep for me
I'm sure
'Cause my loves that strong you'll be too weak to leave me
The day I find you, girl, you'll love me
Each day I try harder
With faith and confidence
I know I'll get you
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
So close, I can still feel your heartbeat
But you're not here
But my searching is all over now
That you're growing near
Today I finally found you, girl, and you love me
You're here in my arms
Where you'll stay two days
Always
Always
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
Today I found you, girl
You love me
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
