Do It Again

Matthew Sweet

I'll do it again, if I have to love you from afar
You'll do it again, before we get too far
I'll hurt you again, baby if you'll hurt me one more time'Cause love that's bad is better than none
You know breaking up is half of the fun
Who would want a dream that can't be realI'll do it again, I will let you take me for a ride
You'll do it again, start opening then hide
I'll hurt you again, baby if you'll hurt me one more time'Cause love that's bad is better than none
You know breaking up is half of the fun
Who would want a dream that can't be real
I'll do it againA love that's bad is better than none
You know breaking up is half of the fun
And who would want a dream that can't be realAnd I'll hurt you again, baby if you'll hurt me one more time'Cause love that's bad is better than none
You know breaking up is half of the fun
Who would want a dream that can't be real
I'll do it again, I'll do it again

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/