

Borrowed Time (Live at the House of Blues)

A Fine Frenzy

Thick as thieves the last of leaves
In the winter sun
Holding fast this freezing branch
Is home to us[Chorus]
Step, step right over the line
And onto borrowed time
When it's life, not waiting to die
Waiting to divide to divide Counting stars and passing cars
On the interstate
The end is near I feel it dear,
But I am not afraid[Chorus] But you say you're getting tired
You're tired and so am I
When you follow from behind[Chorus] But you say you're getting tired
You're tired and so am I
When you follow from behind
