Helltrain

Moonlight and all lost souls burning
 Moonlight and all lost souls burning
 Hell high, just keep cruising on
 I've got a ticket to rideLight's out, there's a spooky voice
 Light's out, for the devils choice
 Hell high, just keep cruising on
 I've got a ticket to rideI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hellI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hellNo time to recall your ticket
 Gotta ride with all them wicked
 End line, first class choice
 Gotta listen to the devil's voiceLight's out, there's a spooky voice
 Light's out, for the devils choice
 Hell high, just keep cruising on
 I've got a ticket to rideI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hellI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hellI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hellI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hellI'm on the helltrain now, all night long
 Where the devil dance and I sing his song
 A ticket stamped, a lit rocket ramp
 A one way road to hell
