

Love Is an Army

LeAnn Rimes

Fear is any army
Fighting against me, fighting a lost cause
If I could only change their uniform
They'd be soldiers of love marching on and on Love is any army
Waiting for me, waiting for this girl
If I could only stretch my arms around you
I'd suddenly see there ain't nothin' wrong with me Hear, words fly out the roof of my mouth
They found a flaw in my armor
Heart so still your beating will heal
The wars I remember, remember Blue is the ocean
Calling me in, calling me near
If I could only learn to breathe down here
I know I would be at home under the sea Yeah, words fly out the roof of my mouth
They found a flaw in my armor
Heart so still your beating will heal
The wars I remember, remember
Remember, remember I'll bend my sword against the world
I'll push on through in spite of you Why so still?
Love is an army
Waiting for me
Waiting for this girl
