Goodbye day

ìš¸ëž„ë•¼ì„¸ì˜ ˜

Oh, sincerely, I must tell you that I really love you dearly
But you are so obsessed with yourself
There's no room for me
You can't give me all the things I needWe've said all we can say
Except our last goodnight to end this day
Don't try changing my mind, you won't find a way
Just say hello to our goodbye dayYour reflection, what you see without detection
I see clearly all your perfect imperfections
Colors turn to gray
I know it's time for me to go awayWe've said all we can say
Except our last goodnight to end this day
Don't try changing my mind, you won't find a way
Just say hello to our goodbye dayJust look behind you now
It won't be me who's standing thereJust say hello to our goodbye day
Just say hello to our goodbye day
Just say hello to our goodbye dayWe've said all we can say
Except our last goodnight to end this day
Don't try changing my mind, you won't find a way
Just say hello to our goodbye dayJust say hello to our goodbye day
Just say hello to our goodbye day
Just say hello to our goodbye day
Just say hello to our goodbye day
