Keep Me from Blowing Away

Johnny Cash

There are times when I trembled
When my mind remembered
The days that just crumbled awayWith nothing to show
But these lines that I know
Are beginning to show in my faceOh Lord, if you're listening
I know, I'm no Christian
And I ain't got much coming to me
So send down some sunshine
And throw out your lifeline
And keep me from blowing awayKeep me from blowing awayWell, I spent my whole lifetime
In a world where the sunshine
Finds excuses for not hangin' 'roundI squandered emotions
On the slightest of notions
And the first easy loving I foundBut soon all of the good times
The gay times and play times
Like colours run together and fade
Oh Lord, if you hear me
Touch me and hold me
And keep me from blowing away
