

Special Cases (Radio Edit)

Massive Attack

Don't tell your man what you don't do right
Not tell him all the things that make you cry
But check yourself for your own shame
And don't be making love like it's all his
Take a look around the world
You see such bad things happening
There are many good men
Ask yourself is he one of them?
The deadliest of sin is pride
Make you feel like you're always right
But they're always two sides
It takes two to make love, two to make a life
Take a look around the world
You see such mad things happening
There are few good men
Thank your lucky star that he's one of them
