

Somebody New

Steven Tyler

Hey honey, take a look at this face
I've been fakin' this smile all day
Keepin' up with this masquerade
Like a wind me up, a one-man parade
Can't you see I'm a different man
No lie honey, I ain't no sham
Lookin' right here you can see first hand
It's the same old me with the same old plan
I don't, don't know if you can see it, baby
If you heard about me lately I'm somebody new, I'm somebody who Doesn't laugh the way I did, I did with you now, honey
I'm a playin' me a one more song
I'm an all night rollin' stone
I'm the life of the party 'cause I don't wanna go home
With somebody new Remember how I used to be that guy
Fall for 'em when they'd bat their eyes
Grass was greener on the other side
Sweeter honey when it wasn't mine
That's long, long gone
Can't you see it baby?
Have you heard about me lately I'm somebody new, I'm somebody who
Doesn't laugh the way I did, I did with you now, honey
I'm a playin' me a one more song
I'm an all night rollin' stone
I'm the life of the party 'cause I don't wanna go home
With somebody new Oh, oh I'm somebody new, I'm somebody who
Doesn't laugh the way I did, I did with you now, honey
I'm a playin' me a one more song
I'm an all night rollin' stone
I'm the life of the party 'cause I don't wanna go home
With somebody new
With somebody new
With somebody new
Nobody but you, ooh
I'm somebody new
