

Toybox

Julienne Taylor

Friday, rainin' no cause to be celebratin'
The dark clouds linger
Out in the sky tonight And I'm waitin forever
Alone with my thoughts that gather
And you are somewhere else
In the world tonight Lonely, feelin', I'm lost in the life
You're leadin' on this freeway
I travel is a dark and distant light And I'm waitin forever
Alone with my thoughts that gather
And you are somewhere else
In the world tonight
Toybox waitin' full of anticipation
Free world spinnin'
Into your arms tonight
And I'm falling - save me
With all the wounds that you gave me Tired of, believing
In the words and the dreams you're dealing
Lie's fall like the season
From your lips silent lullaby And I'm waitin forever
Alone with my thoughts that gather
And you are somewhere else
In the world tonight Toybox waitin' full of anticipation
Free world spinnin'
Into your arms tonight
And I'm falling - save me
With all the wounds that you gave me
You hide behind the tears that fill your eyes
I'm the lie you keep locked up inside I'm your toybox waitin' full of anticipation
Free world spinnin'
Into your arms tonight
I'm your toybox waitin' full of anticipation
Free world spinnin'
Into your arms tonight
