

Hipsta (Radio Edit) [feat. The Bondi Hipsters]

Timmy Trumpet & Chardy

Hipsta - Bondi Hipsters

Rock up at a cafe that's all the rage
Stare at the waiter, till we get a menu
I like what's on the page
Not a bad vibe. Not a bad venue

Tell me bout your bovine. What do they eat?
What's the river they drink from?
And tell me bout your coffee beans
Are they Arabican, Columbian, or Mandheling Lintong?

Have you got anything gluten free?
I'm no celiac, but it disagrees with me
Mmmm, and I don't like toxins either
Should I cleanse my liver with a ginger tea?

I think we'll order, the tap water
the wifi password and hang for a bit
Hey brah what's the track that's playing?
This aint no hipster shit

Have you got anything gluten free?
Sorry Bada!
Don't you know I'm gluten free?
This aint no hipster shit
Did I tell you that I'm gluten free?
Sorry Bada!
What about a ginger tea?
This aint no hipster shit

I'm so busy, life's a chore
Every Saturday I work in a retail store
Keeping busy on a casual shift
Casually chilling, not giving a shit

Hanging at the counter, trawling Tinder
Trying to find a random, I can finger
Have a green smoothie, cause I'm vegan

Mmmm, tastes like dragon semen

Here comes the boss, to check the status
Gotta look busy. Move the hangers
Having to make career compromises
Like brah, need a hand with sizes?

Getting ready. Night in the city
Order a bag and some disco biccies
Shooting up bath salts - That was ace!
Does anyone feel like eating their own face?!

Step out the uber, party time
Polish off my red wine
Stroll up, to the front of the line
The door-guy knows me, I'm here all the time

Doesn't let us in. We're not on the list,
Gotta line up with the pov0 kids
Honestly who do I have to fist
for some cunt to put my name on this list?

Dom I wish we never came! I hate this club, this night's so lame!
Sorry, what? I can not understand a single word you're saying!
I think my ping's kicking in! This DJ's fucking killing it!
Hey DJ what's this track you're playing? This aint no hipster shit

Have you got anything gluten free?
Sorry Bada!
Don't you know I'm gluten free?
This aint no hipster shit
Did I tell you that I'm gluten free?
Sorry Bada!
'Bout an hour ago I dropped an E
This aint no hipster shit

Is this the first time you've seen him live?

No brah. Earlier this year I saw him play this like super secret underground set at a no-name pop-up venue in the city

Cool. Yeah did I ever tell you about that time a few years ago I was hanging out with Gollum and we saw him spinning records in the back of a taco truck in downtown LA

No, but that sounds rad man. I remember back in 2003 me and these random council worker lollypop guys dumped a bunch of pingers and saw him play, at this underground rave in a storm water drain

Oh yeah? Well this one time in like 1994 when I was in my first year of high school, I walked into 7-11 and opened up the ice cream freezer and there he was just dropping some mad beats for all the Bubble-O Bills, and the Cornetto's were all pissed off because I left the freezer open too long and they started to melt

Cool man, I remember when I was just born back in like 1982 my mum took me to the doctors for a check up, and the doctor played me this ultrasound where you could hear him fist pumping inside his mother's womb, so yeah. Pretty underground.
