Take Me Round Again

The Fiery Furnaces

Take me round again in the Wildwood
Where the bluebells grew
With the merry widow waltz singing
Take me back to New York townWhen the birds in Georgia sing of Tennessee
Fifty miles from Boston
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
That's the talk of New York townI've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowIn Brattleboro VT performing
With the People's Choral Union
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
With the merry widow waltzAt the fatal wedding the Dalton boys
And the Dalton boys, they ran a simple game
I've got rings on my fingers
See saw, Margery DawI've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowAt the fatal wedding in Brattleboro mount
Performing with the People's Choral Union
Where death got married till nothing except yourself do you part
I've got rings on my fingersNobody knows, nobody cares
Listen Lester, the Dalton boys, they ran a simple game
Where my caravan has rested
See saw, Margery DawI've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowWith the Japanese Tragedienne
And the old Nestor company at the Blondeau Tavern
At the New Amsterdam Theatre playing
A Parisian RomanceDown among the sugar cane
The man who owns Broadway up in a balloon
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry

I wonder who's kissing her nowI've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowIn the Wildwood where the bluebells grew
That's the talk of New York town
When the birds in Georgia sing of Tennessee
Take me round againWhen a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
Singing take me back to New York town
With the scandal of the Honduras lottery
Fifty miles from BostonI've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowListen, Lester, I've got rings on my fingers
Nobody knows, nobody cares where my caravan has rested
The Dalton boys ran a simple game
In Brattleboro VT performing with the People's Choral Union
See saw, Margery Daw at the fatal weddingI've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowWell, I've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her nowTake me round again in the Wildwood
Where the bluebells grew
With the merry widow waltz singing
Take me back to New York townWhen the birds in Georgia sing of Tennessee
Fifty miles from Boston
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
That's the talk of New York townYeah, I've got rings on my fingers
I saw a show called Carrie Marry Harry
Down among the sugar cane, listen Lester
When a fellow's on the level with a girl, that's on the square
The longest way 'round is the sweetest way home
I wonder who's kissing her now

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/