Lay With Me

The Flying Eyes

Lay with me in the whisper of the night
Like a tiny echo I will keep you from sight
My world is a turn stall and I need you to hope
Girl I`ll never leave you, you remind me of gold, yeah!
Uhmm, you put a chill in the heart of my soul

Lay with me in the middle of the fray
If it wasn`t for your love I`d leave yesterday
But words are frozen in heaven so cold
Girl I`ll never leave you, you remind me of gold!
Uhmm, you put a chill in the heart of my soul

Birds upon my window hear them singing` decay
Jesus won`t you come and save me from the bluesy sunny day
The devil`s smile is charming and he`s calling my name
Girl you know that lust is my favourite game, yeah!

Lay with me in the whisper of the night
Like a tiny echo I will keep you from sight
My world is a turn stall and I need you to hope
Girl I`ll never leave you, you remind me of gold, yeah!
