FUNNY FREAK PARADE

Ultimate Spinach

I saw a funny freak parade
marching down the street
They were acting very strange kissing everybody they meet Bananas hanging from their ears
Daffodils in their hands
Someone asked what's happening here

They were lead by a strange little man playing on a celery flute Backed up by a big brass band Made up one strong ruse
They were making a very strange sound that was hard to describe But you know something good's going 'round

Ra nana na naa....

The fat policeman was getting uptight
Because they drowned him with flower He knows the they smell very sweet but his face is very sour He wants to bust the whole company though he doesn't really know why Maybe it's because they act kind of free who knows

I saw a funny freak parade
marching down the street
They were acting very strange
kissing everybody they meet
Bananas hanging from their ears
Daffodils in their hands
Someone asked what's happening here
That's what's happening baby
