

Chance (Intermission Version)

DC Talk

People watching, every life a mystery
Sunny faces, but you know the stories incomplete
Satisfaction, seems a million miles away
So I'm moving to another state of mind

I'm believing there's no better place or better timeEveryday we live, there's a chance to give

Every time we speak, there's a chance for peace
Everyday we live, there's a chanceLittle sister, put aside your fear and breath

In the secret, do you hear the voice of heaven (sayin')
Come together, hope is stronger than it seems
Where you're standing there's no running out on love

Only human, but you've set your eyes on the things aboveEveryday we live, there's a chance to give

Every time we speak, there's a chance for peace
Everyday we live, there's a chance
