Villainy

Local Natives

I want to start again
Sunsets, new babbling man
Holding my sign
Manhattan on the rocks
Red handed, never caught
But hoping you'll tryMine is a chrome palace
Lost in Los Angeles
I know that I'll make it throughI want to start again
My crime fits the punishment
Wasting my time
Remember at the board Laura throwing darts
You're holding it together while you're torn apart
Forcing a smileMine is a chrome palace
Lost in Los Angeles
I know that I'll make it through
Mine is a chrome palace
Islands and old ballads
Shining like brand newIt takes a moment for your eyes to adjust
Step out into the sun
It takes a moment for your eyes to adjust
Step out into the sunIt takes a moment for
For your eyes to adjust
Step out into the sun
UhI want to start again
Sunsets, new babbling man
Holding my sign
Manhattan on the rocks
Red handed, never caught
But hoping you'll try
