

Villainy

Local Natives

I want to start again
Sunssets, new babbling man
Holding my sign
Manhattan on the rocks
Red handed, never caught
But hoping you'll try Mine is a chrome palace
Lost in Los Angeles
I know that I'll make it through I want to start again
My crime fits the punishment
Wasting my time
Remember at the board Laura throwing darts
You're holding it together while you're torn apart
Forcing a smile Mine is a chrome palace
Lost in Los Angeles
I know that I'll make it through
Mine is a chrome palace
Islands and old ballads
Shining like brand new It takes a moment for your eyes to adjust
Step out into the sun
It takes a moment for your eyes to adjust
Step out into the sun It takes a moment for
For your eyes to adjust
Step out into the sun
Uh I want to start again
Sunssets, new babbling man
Holding my sign
Manhattan on the rocks
Red handed, never caught
But hoping you'll try
