This Pain

Kamelot

Pushing for the limit of sanity Pushing for the surface So I can breathe Dark is the night for us all But some days I can feel the light crawling down these jagged walls Blessed sunlightSome of this pain is sole subjected But what was I to do Some of this pain will always stay Deep and trueI left her with a warning Without protection 'Cause the human nature has it's ways with lust With her back against the wall She crumbled Just a minute more would save her life And even so... part of me Blessed sunlightSome of this pain is sole subjected But what was I to do Some of this pain will always stay Deep and true

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/