

Know How

The Crane Wives

I am not brave, I am not brave,
I keep my focus on what is safe.
You drew a line, made up your mind,
And now I'm struggling to realize I gotta wrap my head around
What my heart is telling me,
I've been trying to drown it out.
Just because I know what I am,
I am supposed to do now,
Doesn't mean I know, doesn't mean I know
How. I am not brave, I am not brave,
I blind my eyes to what won't stay.
You kissed my mouth, you pushed me out
And now I'm struggling to free myself. I gotta wrap my head around
What my heart is telling me,
I've been trying to drown it out.
Just because I know what I am,
I am supposed to do now,
Doesn't mean I know, doesn't mean I know
How.
