Surrender

Gary Moore

Surrender, surrender
Surrender, surrender
Look at me and look at you
The things we put each other through
Every day that we're apart
The scars run deeper through my heart
Surrender, surrender
To our love so tender
Now that I anticipate
When I'm with you the world can wait
Heaven's door is open wide
When it's you I feel inside
Surrender, surrender
To our love so tender
Look at me and look at you
Things we put each other through
And every day that we're apart
The scars run deeper through my heart
Surrender, surrender
To our love so tender
Surrender, surrender
To our love so tender
