

Pink Lemonade

Kittie

Trusted you
With my life
Shattered dreams
Broken glass
I hope there is a closure
Down your path
For I have yet to find
The means to forgive
So what if this was all I had?
Is it over?
Washing away
And forget to see
Go choose your way
Leaving everything
You walked away from this
Did it make it easier on you?
So now what?
Life must go on still haunted
It's so hard to face the day
I hope it is good for you
I tried, oh how I tried, but it's broken
Let me go, I could have died
