Out of Touch

7Seconds

Please, please, please
I'm calling for you, my dear
I hope you can understand
I think it's time we changed our plan
Oh this smile
Trying to raise my mind
To what we really have
Seems to me we've lost our touch
Oh I had to start
We've been out of touch
Oh I had to start
Can't keep myself away
All this time
I'm trying to change my way
But now that you're on my mind
Starting to feel I've let you down
So please, please, please
I'm calling for you, my dear
I hope you can understand
I think it's time I changed the look
Oh I had to start
We've been out of touch

Oh I had to start
Can't keep myself away
Oh I had to start
We've been out of touch
Oh I had to start
Can't keep myself away
I hope to be with you
And in no other way
We speak each other's mind
That's the only kind of touch
But I'll always be here
For you all the time
So in a different kind of way
I still love you just the same
It seems to me we've lost our touch
Oh I had to start

We've been out of touch
Oh I had to start
Can't keep myself away
Oh I had to start
We've been out of touch
Oh I had to start
Can't keep myself away
