

We R in Need of a Musical Revolution

Esthero

I'm so sick and tired of the shit on the radio
And MTV, they only play the same thing
No matter where I go I see Ashanti in the video
I want something more We are in need of a musical revolution
We are in need of How can you make your way through the world today
When everybody is so angry?
And what we hear affects our hearts
There's got to be a better way to communicate
So show your love, not hate We are in need of a musical revolution
We're so tired of the same old
We are in need of some spiritual evolution
We're so tired of the same old, same old We are in need of love
We are in need of love I'm calling, calling
I'm calling out, calling you
I'm calling out, calling Doesn't anybody wanna do something new? I'm so sick and tired of the shit on the radio I'm calling all creators in the movement
It's time to offer a solution to the dilution of what had we loved
And the greats would be so disappointed
'Cause we've sold our souls for what we don't own anymore We are in need of love, let's start a musical revolution
We're so tired of the same old way
We are in need of some lyrical evolution
We're so tired of the same old, same old I'm so sick and tired of the shit on the radio
And MTV, they only play the same thing
No matter where I go I see Ashanti in the video
I want something more 'Cause I'm so sick and tired of the shit on the radio
And MTV, they only play the same thing
No matter where I go I see Britney on my video
I Scream, I want something more Let's start a musical revolution
I want something more
Let's start a musical revolution Tell me why a grown man can rape a little girl
But we still hear his shit on the radio
A grown ass man can videotape a little girl
But we still see his mug up on our video screens? I want something more
I want something
