Waiting For Her

A-ha

Waiting for her
That's all I ever do, waiting for her
So why didn't I take the measures justifiedOur love has always been the same
She comes, then goes away again, oh yeahYeah, the sweet little love is goneShe used to say
We never had the breaks we should've had
Coming our way
So why didn't I take the time and put it rightOur love has always been the same
She leaves me standing out in the rain, oh yeahSend her my love
She's all I'm thinking of, oh yeahI'm telling you
We never had the breaks we should've had
Comin' our wayAnd when she's sleeping by my side
Eyes closed, all knowledge trapped inside, oh yeah
So why didn't I take the measures justifiedSend her my love
She's all I'm thinking of, oh yeahI'm telling you, yeah
Yeah, the sweet little love is gone
Telling youThe sweet little love is gone
