

Away From Your Heart

Legacy

Look up on a cloudy night and i bet that you'll see a star Come back tryna to make it work and I won't even know who you are There's no way that we can be one if we're already torn apart That's why I'm moooovin, movin away from your heart Through all this tragedy up you can't be mad that we done it's like karma is a real bitch Natalie Nunn it's funny cuz now you sayin shit like you miss me some months ago, you ain't want shit to do with me But now that I'm on she wanna smash again I think she scared that I'll pull a Kardashian Oh well you wearin diapers, I do big shit now If you pull up I don't need you I'm a big kid now Get it?
I'll never bring this chick in public, like a tranny I don't mean to be a dick but fuck it if lovin you is right than i guess i'm too wrong Got percent of offers in my way I got to move on if you buggin me than all i'm gonna get is pissed off like I'm recommending you to buy a shell and get lost You better do like Daphne did and get a clue your never gonna see me again But i bet if you...
Look up on a cloudy night and I'll bet that you'll see a star (see a star) come back, tryna make it work and I won't even know who you are (ohhh) there's no way we can be one

if were already torn apart
that's why i'm moooovin,
movin away from your heart aye babe (what) i kinda think that it was wrong that it got so bad that we started beefin on a song got me actin out that anger and I promise I am past that and besides i got a new boo and she's an actress so that means she don't need nothin from me she a multi-millionaire, shoulda seen all this money a chick who stay real is the chick who can't fail, she is i-n-d oh shit you can't spell... while you was schemin on gettin rich and shit and bought more cuz that louis bag i bought ya can't drive to the store and that gucci bag i bought can't pay next months rent How you doubling your worth if your money just got spent?

I'm like the people that play sports for a livin If it slow me down I ain't fuckin wit it You better do like Velma did and never get a clue, you never gonna see me again
But i bet if you...
and I bet that you'll see a star (see a star) come back, tryna make it work and I won't even know who you are (you weeere) there's no way we can be one
if were already torn apart that's why i'm mooooviin, moovin away from your heart i bet you really feel like shit right now x4
