Please Go

Golden Earring

From the Album:
* Just EarringsPlease go, before tears come from my eye
You throw my love away i wonder why
Now i am thinkin' what the reason could be
You said you've got no other love that's a lie to me
You know i really die if i should see
You're making love to men no matter who it will be
Listen baby you can imagine what happens to me now
You said you wanna be free like other people so always told me before
And if you don't wanna hurt me
Don't stay in the place where our love started
I ask you, i ask you now
Please go, before tears come from my eye
You throw my love away i wonder why
Now i am thinkin' what the reason could be
You said you've got no other love that's a lie to me
You know i really die if i should see
You're making love to men no matter who
I said please go home now before tears come from my eye
I just can't standing the lie
I said no, oh no, oh no
Please go, before tears come from my eye
You throw my love away i wonder why
