Voodoo Punanny

Joe Rogan

When I first found voodoo I was in my 20's
I was workin' at a club and tryin' to be funny Met a sweet girl named Ilene she had the nicest legs I'd ever seen

We had a few laughs and a few white russians laughs turned into feelin' and touchin'

We started to kiss and she said I think your nice let me take you back to my place and ruin your life

It was voodoo

I thought Ilene was just bein' playful but that's before she licked my naval I was tryin' to think of somethin' cool to say when she ripped off her lingerie She climbed on top and I lost my breath and when she squeezed it tight she nearly scared me to death

Just one night with her changed my world Ilene was no ordinary average girl she had ultra hot fox mammy jammy nuclear hot powered voodoo punanny

And to this day when I'm alone with vasoline you can bet I'm thinkin' about Ilene

Voodoo ... punanny got the voodoo .. doesn't matter what you do you can't resist the power it holds so listen very closely to the story I've told It's the reason women drink free martinis the reason old men buy lamborghinis

There was a girl named Lola and a guy named Sam
He fancied him self an ambitious man Straight to the top was where Sam was destined But that was before he saw Lola's breast and touched her thigh her skin was creamy kissed her lips so moist and dreamy

Took off their clothes and started to do the act and Sam nearly had him self a heart attack you see Lola's voodoo's extra strong they fornicated all night long When mornin' came he called the office think I've found a better offer

You can keep the job he said " I resign and I'll take Lola from behind" now Sam works all day pumpin' gas day dreamin' of lovely Lola's ass He gets off at five every night and ?? ??? till day light

Voodoo ... punanny got the voodoo...doesn't matter what you do

so listen very carefully to the story I've told Punanny got magic punanny got power It's the only reason men buy flowers

Did ya ever meet man with a bitchy wife ?
wonder why the guy wanna ruin his life
By bein' married to a woman that's mean to him Well I'm gonna tell you somethin' so listen kid

When the lights go down and the candles flame i bet that woman doesn't act the same I bet you what she got is really sweet Bet you that girl is packin' heat When he gets her alone whips out his bannana She gives him a dose of the voodoo punanna you ain't gonna forget it You can't ignore it no matter where you look there ain't no cure for it don't waste your time tryin' to run and hide voodoo haunts you every night

Voodoo

Daddy I'm scared

you should be son it's good to fear Cause if it wasn't for voodoo you wouldn't be here

I never wanted kids but that was your mamma's idea

She tricked me with voodoo
