China Heart

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

Here I am, all alone
Come see the girl with the china heart
Keep me safe, safe from harm
Hurt me and sound the alarm
Lovers they surrender
Cos nothing lasts forever
Can you free my heart?
Chorus:
My china heart, a work of art
So cold to those who play
I can easily break

My china heart, behind the glass
What good does it do?
I need someone like you
To love and warm me through
Every night, every day
I am the girl with the china heart
Lock and key, guarding
So look but I can't let you touch
Hungry dogs will chase you
If you try to get through dare you free my heart?
Chorus 2x
