

White Stallions

Saint Vitus

White Stallions
(Chandler)yesterday I saw my face pictured in the sky
    as I gazed upon myself my whole life flashed by I heard the sound of hoofbeats from a thousand angry mares before I could control my thoughts my inner soul was theirswhite stallions in my vein
    white stallions
    lord stop me before I go insanetook me to the promised land where everything is free looked around and saw my friends laughing loud at me a great stone wall divided us on their side was a dance on my side was endless torture guess I blew my chance
