

Mind Your Manners

Pearl Jam

I've got an unfortunate feelin'
I've been beating down
I feel I don't believe
And now the truth is coming out
What they've taken is more than a vow
They've taken your innocence
And then they throw them on a burning fire
[Chorus]All along they're sayin'
Mind your manners
I caught myself believin'
That I needed God
And if it's hard for some
We sure could use it now
Try my patience
My patience tried
This world's a lonely living
That makes me wanna cry
[Chorus]All along they're sayin'
Mind your manners

It's all they're sayin'!
[Bridge]Self-realized and metaphysically redeem
May not live another life
May not solve a mystery
Right around the corner
Could be bigger than ourselves
We could will it to the sky
Or we could something else
[Chorus]No longer sayin!
Mind your manners!
Always praying!
[Bridge]Go to Heaven
That's swell
How do you like it
Livin' Hell
[x3]
