Unbroken

Killswitch Engage

Go
Forever falling into oblivion
The darkness crawls forward
It engulfs my will to live
Fear is failure and this is my motivation
Take back what was stolen
Reclaim all that's lost
With virtue
I will rise up from the ruins
Come on
Through adversity there is redemption
With passion, fighting, I am unbroken
Through adversity there is redemption
With passion, fighting, I am unbroken
Take back what was stolen

Embrace the cycle
Refuse to turn back now
And be led astray
Fear is failure and this is my affirmation
Through adversity there is redemption
With passion, fighting, I am unbroken
Through adversity there is redemption
With passion, fighting, I am unbroken
The absence of fear is the renewal of self
The absence of doubt, breeds desire
If there is truth to face, I will design it
I will not be denied
Unbroken
I will not be denied
I will not be denied
