

See Me Now

Kanye West, Beyoncé & Charlie Wilson

Charlie Wilson - Chorus)

I know you see me now right now,

(I know you see me now right now)

I know you see me now right now (Right now, right now)

I know you see me now right now (Right now)

I know you see me now right now

(Beyoncé - Hook)

I got my suit and tie and i dont know if yall know

Well maybe yall do or maybe yall dont

But i dont really care (yeah)

cus how we on it all the time (uh)

So imma get my money lets go

(Kanye - Verse 1)

Now imma need you to kill the hypocrisy, this an aristocracy

Im Socrates but my skin more chocolaty

"Whats up wooh?" Thats old news

Im in a speed boat, in my boat shoes

Ha?

I swear my whole collection so cruise

I might walk in nobu, with no shoes

He just walked in nobu like it was wholefoods

That nigger crazy i told you

Immatue adult insecure asshole (What else)

If you fall on the concrete thats your asphalt

If you pass on that Kane beat, thats your last thought

Get what you ask for i swear thats your ass thought

She got a big booty but she couldnt drop that ass low

So you take your last hoe and rope up all the cash flow

When you getting money they be all up on your ass yo

When you getting money cuts dont matter cus a nigger past go

Straight to jail yo, in a hell hole

Right next to lucifer, tell him i said hello

Ask if imma be there soon, and tell him i said hell no.

Yo what you say when your people get out of jail huh?

(Beyoncé)

My niggers is home, i guess i got everything

Everything i want, but i dont

Know matter how good it gets it will never be like before

No women in the crowd, screaming and its loud

Doing things not allowed
And i swear its going down right now
I know one thing my momma would be proud
And you see me looking up
Cus i know shes looking down right now

(Charlie Wilson - Chorus)

I know you see me now right now,
(I know you see me now right now)
I know you see me now right now (Right now, right now)
I know you see me now right now (Right now)

I know you see me now right now
(Kanye - Verse 2)

Poor the champagne let your watch show
Shortie got a man watch, wrist look colossal
I admit my first watch was a fossil
Now im in the louvre looking for fossils
Attention to detail is so uncanny
And the whips on this ????? is so uncanny
Somebody needs to put us on camera
The world of rollies and everyones family
Stay jordan fresh suites and ferraris coupes
N shortie watch barneys? we head the barneys?
End up at 'mani giorgi and service from sergio pacini lamborghini the chain blow off the vertigo
I know the flow just hit a hella-fied vertical
This the cris year, last year was magic 32
Lyricaly cant' none of yall murder Ye'
Cus yall raps aint got no vertebrae
I got style ask julie she heard in may
I killt the fur last, Paris rased the murder rate
First of all we all know the beats is Like a mix between fergie and jeez
Imagine the direction of this immaculate conception
Everyone of his majesty's swim partys is pageantrys
Cannon ball of the diving board when i am bored
All my hommies GD's but i am lord
Rap god, Greek mythology
and this life to crazy to think logicaly
Heres somthing that you can use an analogy
My life is like a childs solutions become reality
(Beyonce)
Now go get my throne cus i dont wanna stop
I just go in my zone and imma make it hot
Till its time to go when its time to go

Where you trying to go? you better act like you can see me know

(Charlie Wilson - Chorus)

I know you see me now right now,

(I know you see me now right now)

I know you see me now right now (Right now, right now)

I know you see me now right now (Right now)

I know you see me now right now
