

Flame Trees

Jessica Mauboy

(Original Song from the TV Series "The Secret Daughter") Kids out driving Saturday afternoon, pass me by

I'm just savoring familiar sights

We shared some history this town and I

And I can't stop that long forgotten feeling I'm here

Time to book a room and stay tonight, oh ooh

Number one is to find some friends to say "you're doing well"

After all this time you boys look just the same, uhm

Number two is the happy hour at one of two hotels

Settle in to play, do you remember? So and so,

Number three is a never say his name And all the flame trees will blind the weary driver

And there is nothing else could set fire to this town

There's no change, there's no pace

Everything within its place

Just makes it harder to believe that he won't be around

Ohh, Who needs that sentimental bullshit, anyway

You know it takes more than just a memory to make me cry

And I'm happy just to sit here round the table with old friends

See which one of us could say the biggest lies

Ohh, and there's a girl, she's falling in love near where the pianola stands

With her young local factory auto worker, just holding hands And I'm wondering if he'll go or if he'll stay

Do you remember, nothing stopped us on the field

In our days

All the flame trees will blind the weary driver

And there is nothing else could set fire to this town

There's no change, there's no pace

Everything within its place

Just makes it harder to believe that he won't be around
