Pallbearer

Destroy the Runner

The darkest words, the darkest thoughts
You left me now
I'm so lost
How can this pain be taken away?
How can this be in your own name?
I swear even the dead want you alive
One last kiss as we say our goodbyes
Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now
Bury me with you and never let my hand go
I'll think of you forever
I'll sing melodies over your grave
Songs of remembrance
And the lives you saved
I'll think of you forever
When we meet again
Will you still have that loving skeleton?
